PROGRAMME ►►

▶▶ FRIDAY 10 JUNE 2011

▶ 16H00 Drinks

▶ 17H00 Opening

Welcome, Peter Scherrer

9 min No to austerity! English

The campaigning for workers rights in the past four years culminated in the European wide action 'No to austerity!'. The film shows the demonstration in Brussels on 29 September 2010.

90 sec Bringing the cuts home English

Commercial portraying the impact of austerity measures.

23 min Into the graveyard English/Hindi

Alang (Gujarat) in India is the largest shipbreaking yard in the world with 60,000 workers. India receives 30% of its steel from the shipbreaking industry. The experience gained by the Mumbai Port Trust Dock & General Employees' Union led to a better understanding of the difficulties encountered by the workers and enabled it to establish direct and regular contacts with the neglected shipbreaking workers.

60 min HF6 French/English

A documentary about the downturn affecting the steel industry in Liege, Belgium and the hope, fight and victory linked to the restart of the blast furnace HF6. The film also touches on the controversy surrounding environment and employment in connection with the Kyoto Protocol.
